It Was Up to Her.

A woman had just been hurt and carried into the drug store when the girl reporter dashed up. She gathered the particulars from one who had witnessed the accident and then went after details. First came the woman's name. She asked several persons and then a man who had been listening to her questions said irritably, "Oh, you curious woman! Why don't you wait until tonight. We can read all about it in the paper then."

"No you can't," she returned hotly. "not unless I find out and write it!" Exchange.

we know.
I used to think I knew I knew,
But now I must confess
The more I know I know I know
I know I know the less.

The Drawback.
"There is only one reason I know of why a woman doesn't have a say in everything going."
"What is that?"
"If she's dumb."

A Common Failing
Muggins—Don't be too hard on Skinnum. He has lots of good in him.
Buggins—Too bad he doesn't let some of it out.

The Whole Barnyard.
Mrs. Pester—I see the Redhaws had to give up their apartment. I wonder why.
Her Husband—Keeping domestic animals in it, I reckon. According to the neighbors he's a jackass, his wife's a cat, his son's a puppy and his daughter's a bird.

The Reason Why.
George—You do not call on Miss Rosebud now?
Jack—No, I got disgusted. She has such a coarse laugh.
George—I never noticed that.
Jack—You would if you'd been within hearing when I proposed to her.

Excessive Demands.
"Do you subscribe to the poetic theory that love is all in all?"
"No," said Mr. Grumpson. "And furthermore, I believe the valuation placed on the broken heart in the average breach-of-promise suit is the rankest kind of profiteering."

QUIT IT
"You don't read the newspapers about any more?"
"No. Got tired having the children correct my pronunciation."
